RESORT & SPA

Love, Bacara

78 acres of pure romance

From the time you were little, you pictured the moment. Fragrant florals, an enchanted setting and the sun shining on your beloved, by your side. At one of the world's most captivating wedding locales, it's all yours for the asking. Where our version of Something Blue is the great expanse of sea and sky. And every venue is set amid 78 acres of natural coastal beauty.

Whatever your preference — from our most exquisite ballroom to our oceanside bluffs — we're dedicated to one thing: making your wedding experience just as you imagined. Come, let us show you what's possible. The breezes, alive with romance, will assure you your moment has arrived.

Yes, you said, a thousand times yes

It is a legendary location. The Pacific waits below The Bluff with anticipation, right along with your guests, as you tie the knot in what is considered California's most inspired place. A lofty perch where guests can share your joy, the setting affirms there's no better way to begin your journey together. The answer is yes, resoundingly yes.

The Bluff
